

Areas of Interest

The number of students applied for Data Science who knew "Python" and who didn't.

The different ways students learned about this program.

Students who are in the fourth year and have a CGPA greater than 8.0.

Students who applied for Digital Marketing with verbal and written communication score greater than 8.0

Year-wise and area of study wise classification of students.

College wise classification of students

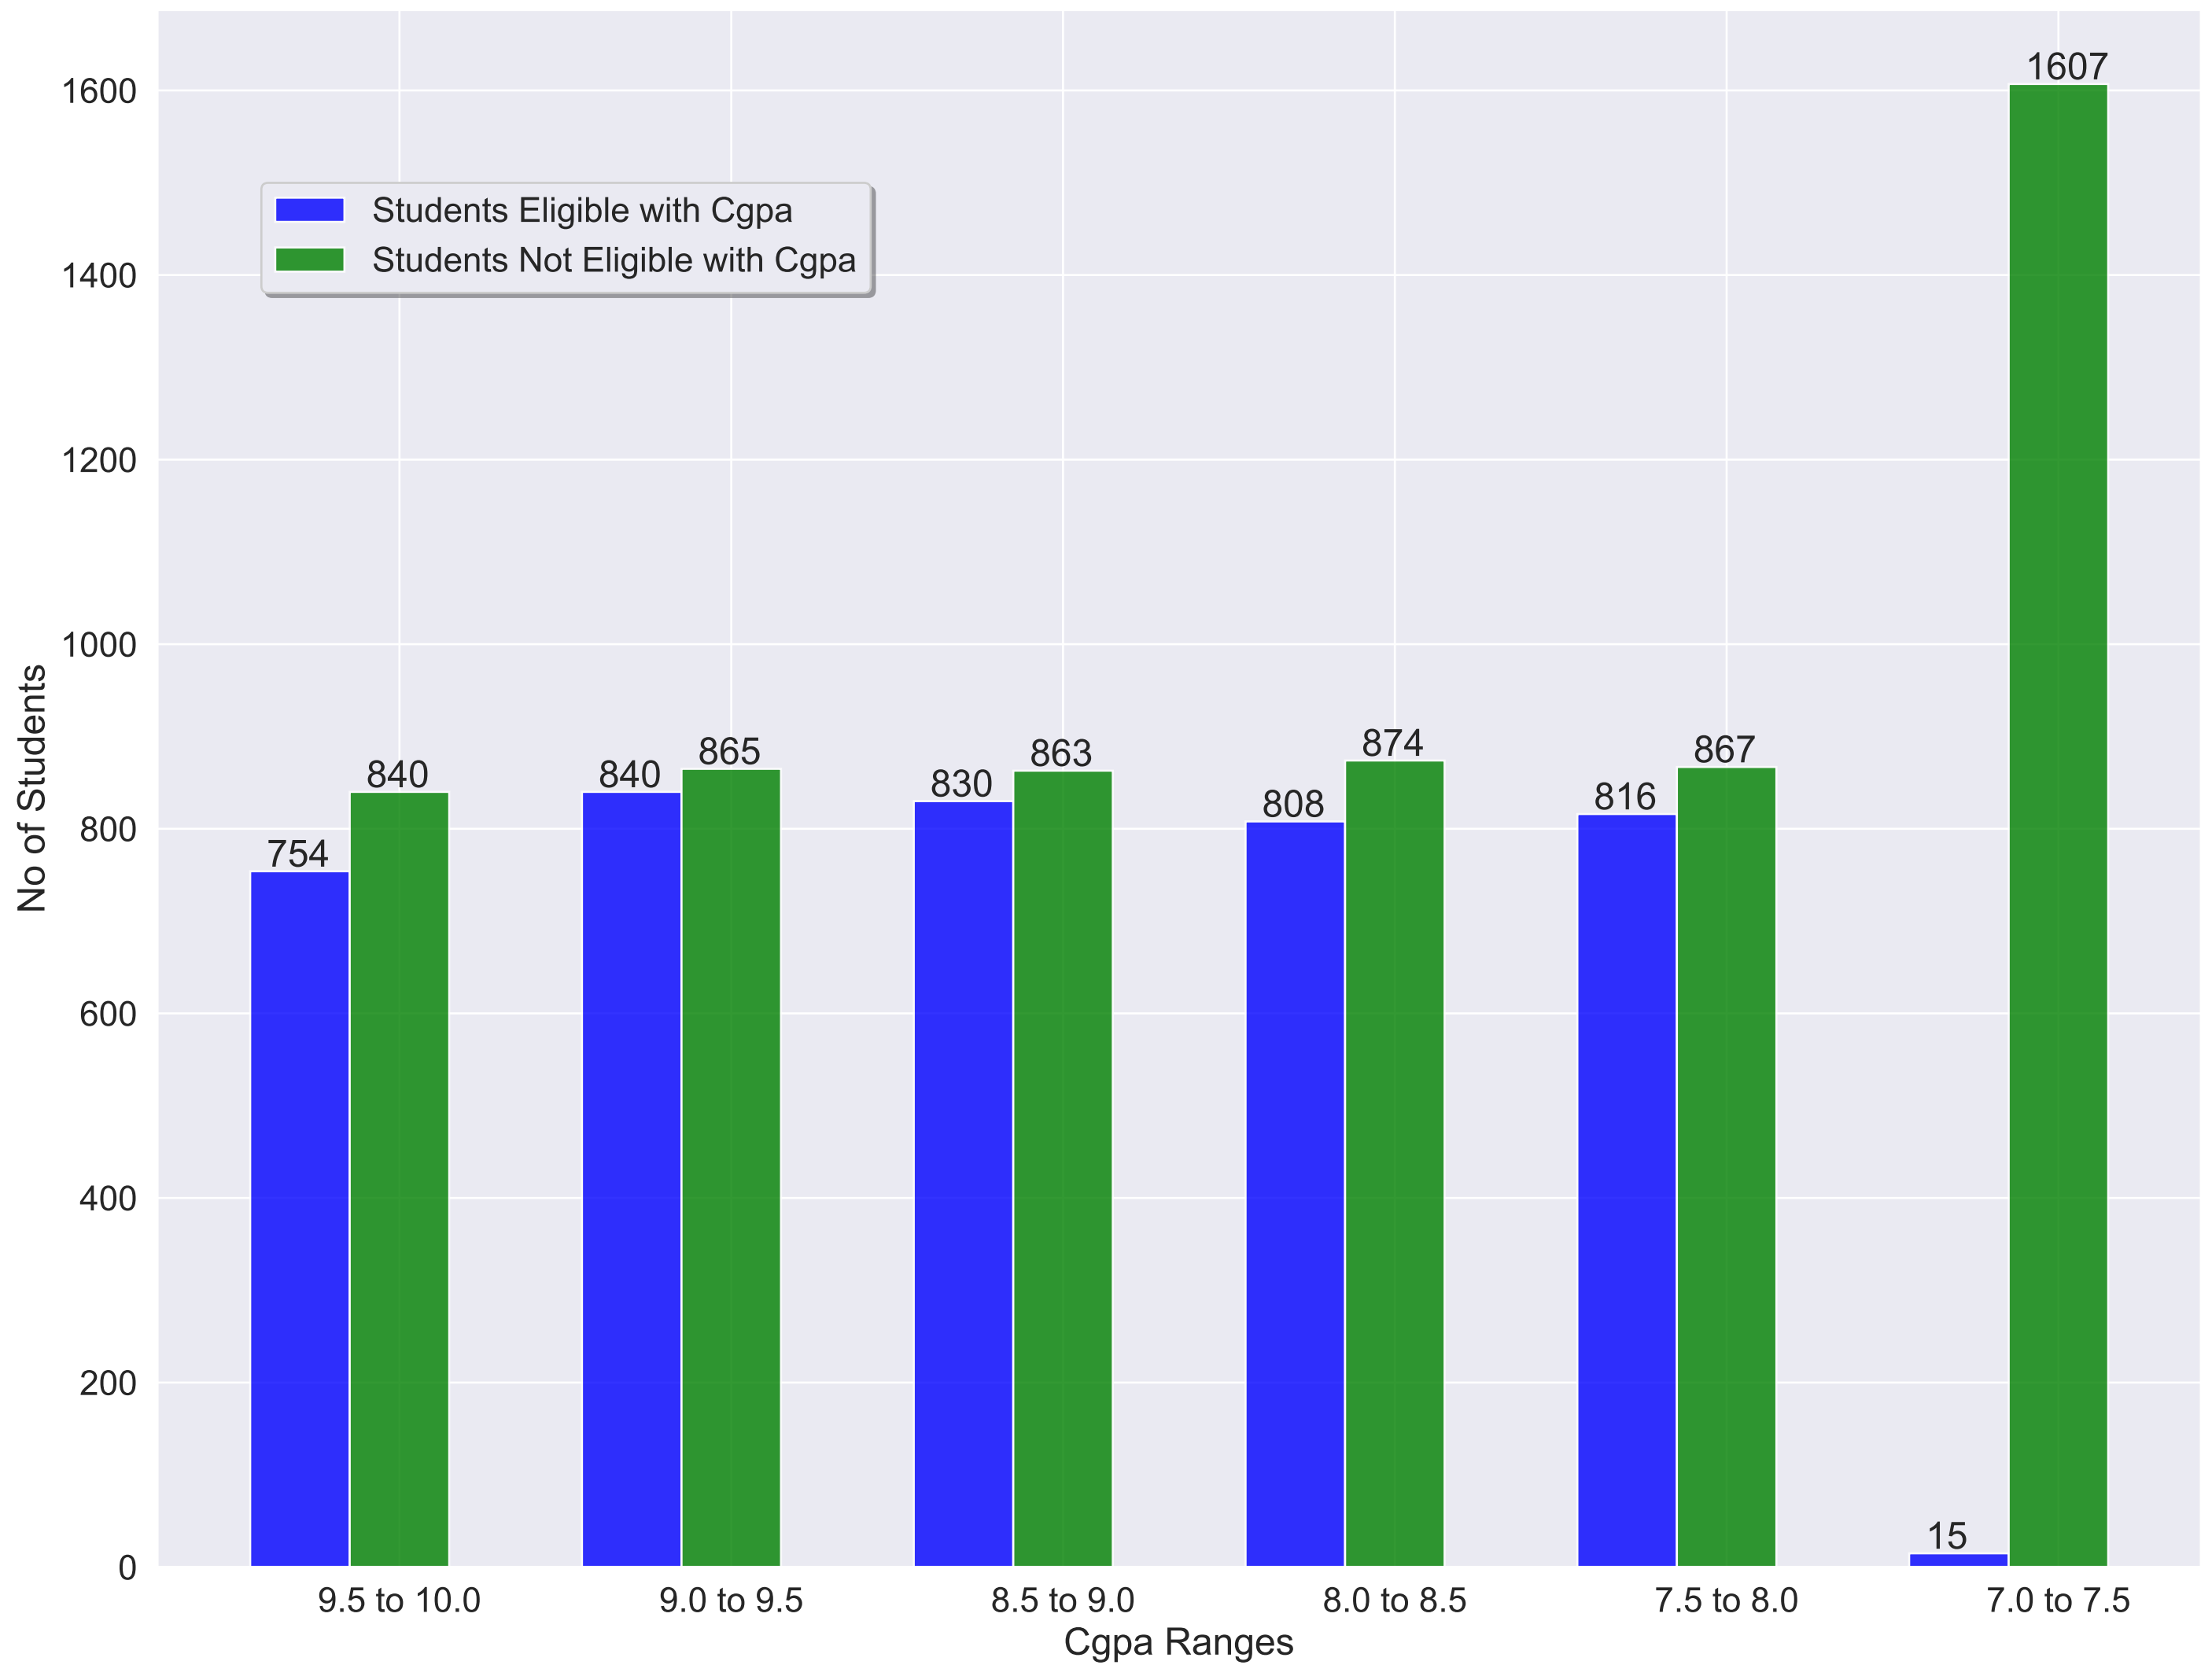

City wise classification of students

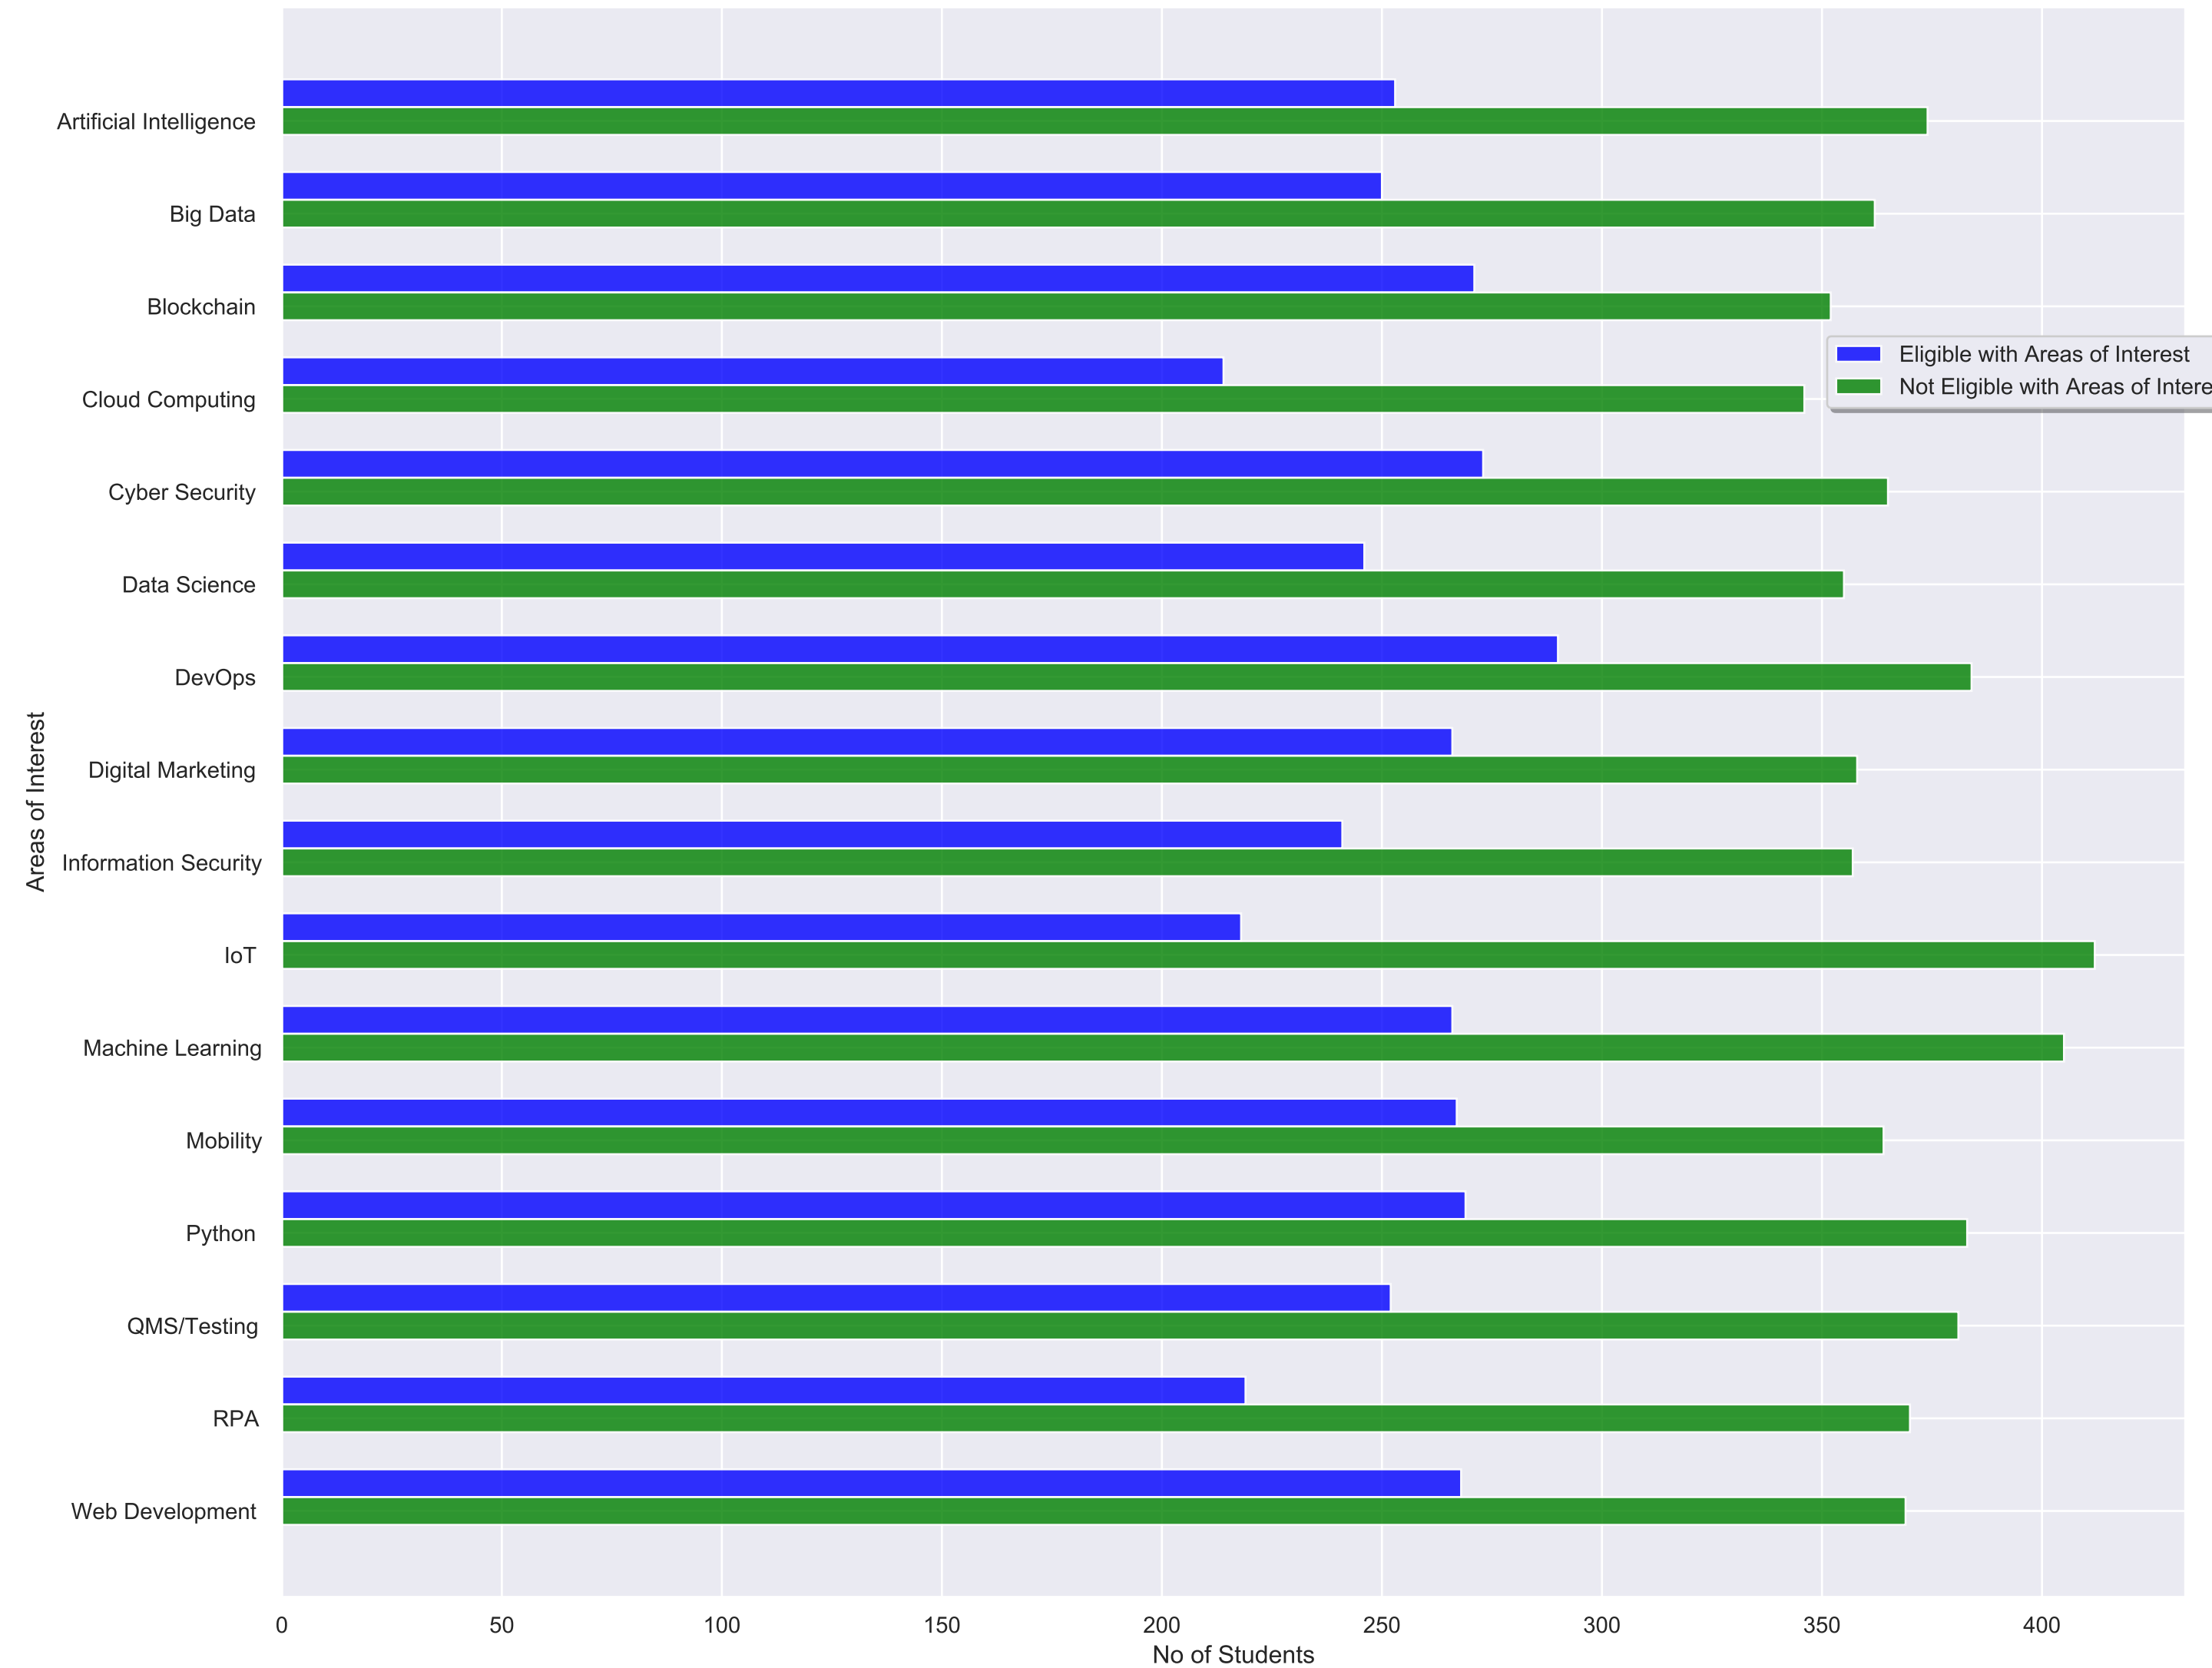

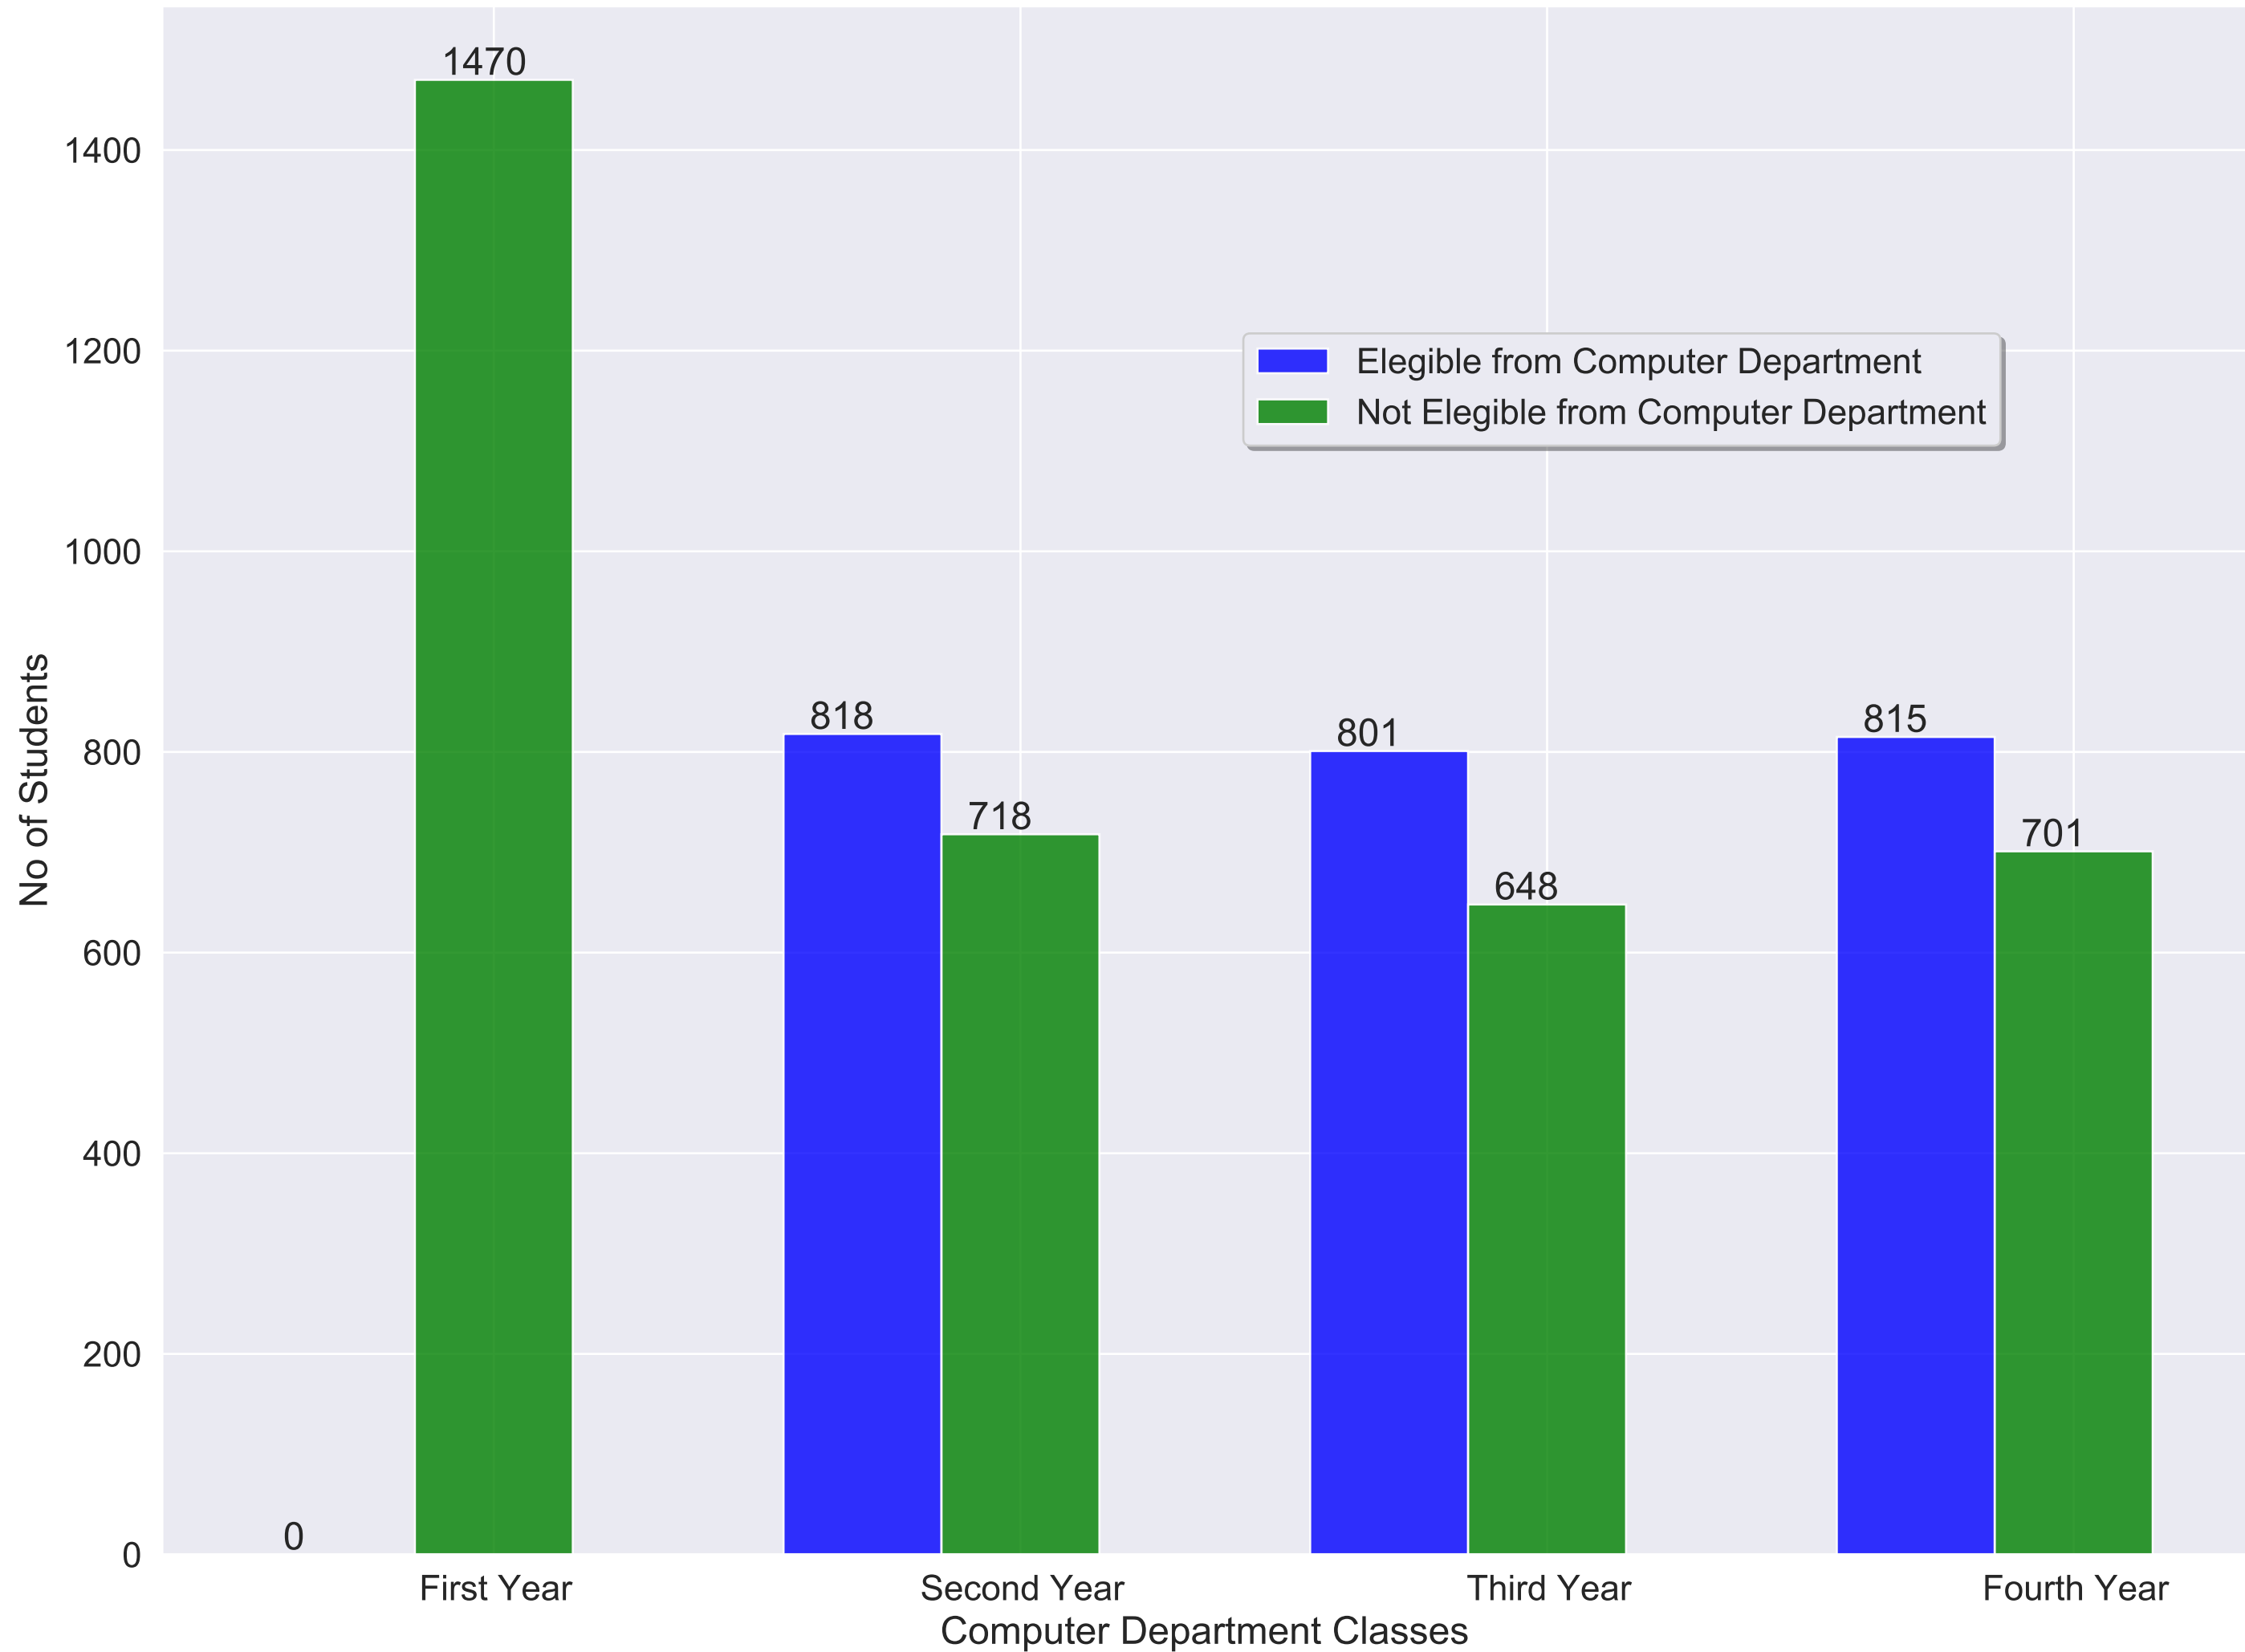

Relation between the CGPA and the target variable.

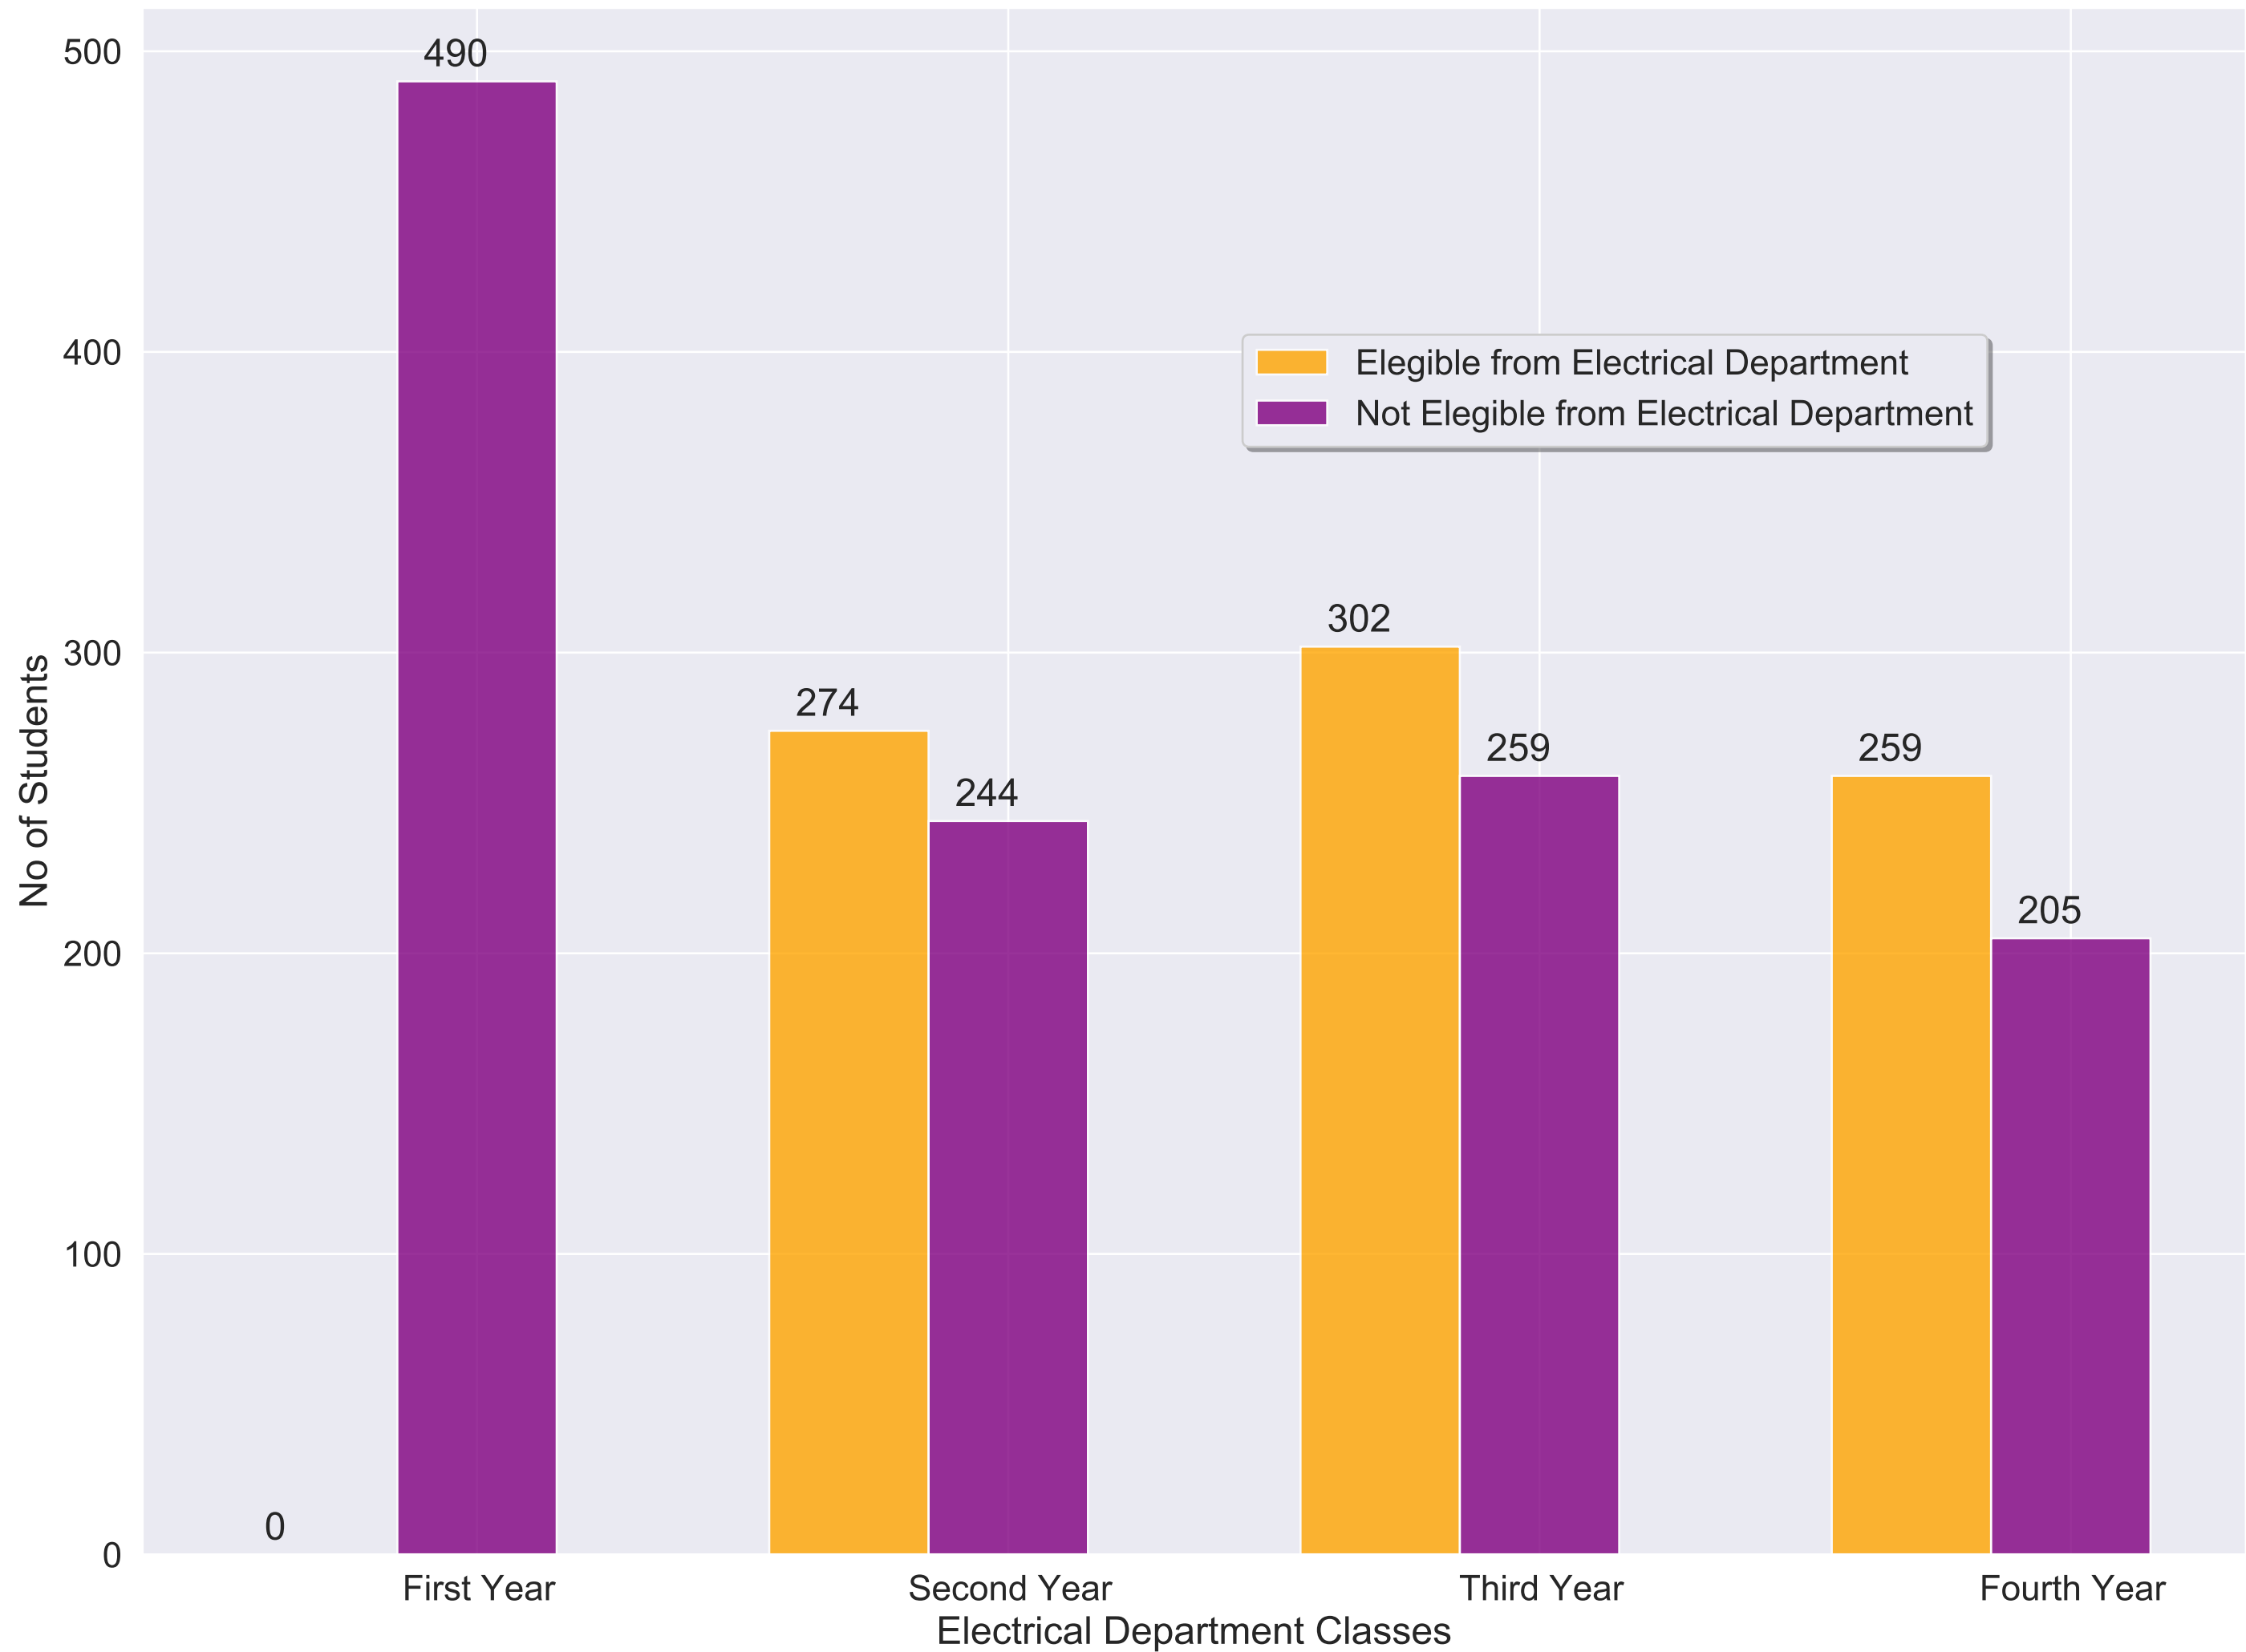

Relation between the Area of Interest and the target variable.

Relationship between the year of study, major
and the target variable (Computer Department)

Relationship between the year of study, major
and the target variable (Electrical Department)

Relationship between the year of study, major and the target variable (Electronics Department)

